

2011 Irish Baking Contest

Who makes the best soda bread in Maryland? It's something that has been debated in Maryland for years. On Sunday November 13th, the Maryland Irish Festival will hold the Third Annual Irish Baking Contest to answer that burning question of who is the best Irish Baker in Maryland.

There are three categories this year:

1. Soda Bread
2. Scones
3. Theme Cake – Irish Culture (decorations must be on a cake)

The Festival's traditional soda bread competition features 2 sections:

- white bread
- Brown bread.

The Festival's scone competition features 2 sections:

- sweet scones (adds sugar and/or fruit)
- savory scones (adds cheese, herbs or whatever the baker chooses)

Scone entries should be submitted as a plate of 3 scones.

The Festival's theme cake is open and should reflect the spirit of the weekend:

Judging will be final

Contestants should register on Sunday November 13th by 2:00 in Cultural Hall at the baking Booth.

If you have questions please contact Stacie Guerin at 443-463-9225 or stacgu@yahoo.com